

IDENTITY, CALLING AND ASSIGNMENT

You have been given an identity, a calling and an assignment.

Your identity is not the accumulation of your wealth.

Your calling is not found in what you do.

Your joy is not hiding in the world's pursuits.

1. You have been given an _____ identity.

You were designed by God, formed in your mother's womb and placed on this earth for this moment.

When God looked at his creation in mankind in Genesis, he proclaimed, he/she is "very good."

Before you do anything for Him, you are "very good."

Before you live a life that honors Him, you are "very good."

Galatians 4.6: Because you are his sons, God sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, the Spirit who calls out, "Abba, Father."

You are God's son and God is your Abba, your Father – this is your identity.

Brennan Manning: God loves you as you are not as you should be for none of us are as we should be.

2. God has given you a heavenly calling.

Your calling is not what you do, it's a _____ in your heart, mind and soul.

John 10.27: My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.

God calls to you and you are to follow that voice – _____ to that voice is key.

We can't know our call, if we don't know His voice.

His voice will speak to us who position ourselves to listen.

Our calling is less about what we do for God and more about what we do _____ God.

3. You have a kingdom assignment.

Our assignments are the roles we play in the Kingdom of God.

They are opportunities to express the Kingdom of God not in the church but in the _____.

Your assignment is honoring God in what you spend your day working on – your profession, your family, your relationships, your day to day life.
